

BROADWAY COMES TO ST ALBANS!

Come and hear Peter Knapp at
St. Albans School on Thursday 16 October 2008.

Peter Knapp presents an all-singing, all-dancing show about Musicals under the title of SHOWSTOPPERS. You can expect to hear highlights from Showboat, Kiss me Kate, South Pacific, Oklahoma!, Guys and Dolls, West Side Story, My Fair Lady and Cabaret.

John Clough, Assistant Organist at the Cathedral and Director of Music at St. Albans School died tragically early and a Bursary Fund in his name was set up at the school to help talented musicians with their instrumental lesson fees. This evening is to raise funds for this worthy cause.

Peter Knapp was a Lay Clerk with Peter Hurford and is a member of the St. Albans Cathedral Ex-Choristers' Association. After a career on the operatic stage, he ran two opera companies and now teaches at Trinity College of Music. His first show for the John Clough Bursary Fund was a huge success and he is joined for this evening by some of the brightest young singers and dancers and a virtuoso pianist.

You will be most welcome at this event which starts at 7.30pm with a champagne reception. Details and tickets at £20 are available from David Ireson on 01582 832312 or at direson@madasafish.com
